

Helping scam victims earns Hero Award for Northern Ireland Trading Standards Enforcement Officer

Alison Gilchrist, Northern Ireland's Lead Officer on Doorstep Crime and Scams, has received the Trading Standards Hero Award from the Chartered Trading Standards Institute (CTSI) for her tireless work safeguarding victims and potential victims of scams and rogue traders, resulting in savings of over £1m.

£584,000 resurfacing scheme for Grange Blundell Road, Armagh to commence

A £584,000 resurfacing scheme for Grange Blundell Road, Armagh, Co. Armagh will commence on Monday 5 December 2022.

Applications now open for new Independent Autism Reviewer role

The Department of Health has launched a public appointment process to recruit Northern Ireland's first Independent Autism Reviewer.

Statement on planned Northern Trust consultation

The Department of Health has been advised by the Northern Health and Social Care Trust of its planned public consultation on the future of acute maternity services in its area.

Disability on the Record – Exhibition to celebrate International Day of Persons with Disabilities

The Department for Communities is hosting a two-week exhibition to celebrate the UN International Day of Persons with Disabilities.