

Hargey welcomes return of Pride festivals and events

As Pride 2022 festivals return this summer as 'in person' events after two years of being delivered online due to COVID-19 restrictions, Communities Minister Deirdre Hargey has taken the opportunity to promote LGBTQI+ inclusion, visibility and equality.

Banbridge junction realignment and signalisation scheme completed

Infrastructure Minister John O'Dowd today confirmed that works to implement a junction realignment and signalisation scheme at Scarva Street / Downshire Place / Commercial Road junction, Banbridge are now complete.

Health Minister visits the Start360 Youth Engagement Service

Minister Robin Swann has visited a youth facility in Ballymena providing information and support that young people need to navigate the challenges of adolescence and early adulthood.

Swann updates on pay award

The Health Minister has said he will accept the recommendations made by pay review bodies but is unable to move forward without an agreed budget.

Devolved Finance Ministers highlight 'significant gaps' in cost of living support

Finance Minister Conor Murphy has joined his counterparts in Wales and Scotland to call for further action to help households and businesses ahead of another increase in energy prices.