

Givan and O'Neill express sympathy on death of Pat Hume

First Minister Paul Givan and deputy First Minister Michelle O'Neill have expressed their sympathy to the family and friends of Pat Hume following news of her death.

---

Lyons – 'Skill Up' to kickstart your career prospects

Economy Minister Gordon Lyons today launched Skill Up, a new initiative to deliver free training places, in an investment of up to £23million.

---

Coronavirus (Covid-19) Infection Survey – Antibody and Vaccination Data for Northern Ireland

The Department of Health today published a report on antibody and vaccination data from the COVID-19 Infection Survey (CIS).

---

Covid vaccine fact file – bogus claims and side effects

At the heart of many "anti-vaxxer" arguments is the belief that Covid is a hoax – that very different Governments from around the world have somehow managed to unite behind a grand conspiracy, that tens of thousands of health care workers have joined in, along with Government officials and countless media organisations – and they've all managed to keep the plotting secret.

---

Mallon meets pupils from Mitchell House Special School to mark completion of pedestrian safety work

Infrastructure Minister Nichola Mallon met with pupils and staff from Mitchell House Special School to mark the completion of a scheme to provide enhanced crossing facilities and improve road safety on Hollywood Road, Belfast.