

'Radical system-wide change needed in maternity services'

Co-ordinated system-wide change is urgently needed to radically improve maternity care in Northern Ireland, an independent review has found.

Statutory Orders for A5 have been made

The Department for Infrastructure has published the formal Notice of Intention to proceed with the first phase of the A5 Western Transport Corridor Scheme and confirmed that the Direction, Vesting and Stopping-up Orders have been made.

Review of the Northern Ireland Curriculum announced

Education Minister Paul Givan has announced a Review of the Northern Ireland Curriculum as part of his Department's response to the findings of the Independent Review of Education.

Givan responds to Independent Review of Education

Education Minister Paul Givan has set out his Department's response to the recommendations and findings of the Independent Review of Education in Northern Ireland.

Stay safe – advice ahead of Storm Ashley

Multi-agency partners have met and will continue to meet over the weekend as preparations continue ahead of Storm Ashley, the first named storm of the season, which is forecast to bring strong winds on Sunday 20 October.