

We must not ease up against virus – Health Minister

Health Minister Robin Swann has called for a concerted community-wide effort against COVID-19, as Northern Ireland prepares to gradually ease out of lockdown restrictions.

---

Communities Minister allocates £18million for Neighbourhood Renewal

Communities Minister Deirdre Hargey has announced the allocation of £18.06 million to projects being delivered under “People and Place – a Strategy for Neighbourhood Renewal” in the 2021/22 financial year.

---

Dodds welcomes AquaQ Analytics' £1m investment in skills development

Economy Minister Diane Dodds today announced that data management specialists, AquaQ Analytics, is to invest almost £1million in developing the skills of its growing team.

---

Foster and O'Neill condemn attack on life of part-time police officer

First Minister Arlene Foster and deputy First Minister Michelle O'Neill have condemned an attempt on the life of a part-time police officer in Dungiven.

---

Long: Reckless attack could have had devastating consequences

Justice Minister Naomi Long has condemned those responsible for planting an explosive device at the car of a young mother and part-time police officer in Dungiven.