

New Visiting Arrangements launched

New guidance that will facilitate increased visiting in health and social care settings in Northern Ireland will come into effect from this Friday, 7 May 2021, Health Minister Robin Swann has announced.

Poots announces opening of £2million environment funding boost

A £2million Environmental Challenge Fund, launched by Environment Minister Edwin Poots last week, is now open for applications.

Dodds: Building an economy for Northern Ireland's second century

Northern Ireland is well positioned to grow and succeed as we begin our second century, Economy Minister Diane Dodds has said.

New Governor of Maghaberry Prison appointed

The Northern Ireland Prison Service has announced the appointment of David Savage as the new Governor of Maghaberry Prison. He will take up post on Monday 3 May having served as Deputy Governor at the Prison since 2019.

Dodds welcomes easing of restrictions on visits to Belfast and Portadown

Economy Minister today hailed the reopening of retail, outdoor hospitality and some tourism accommodation as “another significant milestone as we move out of lockdown”.