

Murphy extends protection for business tenancies until end of March

Finance Minister Conor Murphy has extended an emergency provision for commercial tenants by a further three months in order to protect businesses at this difficult time.

Health Minister Launches Consultation on New Mental Health Strategy

Health Minister Robin Swann today launched a public consultation on a new, ten year Mental Health Strategy for Northern Ireland.

Mallon approves changes to public transport provision in response to the recent COVID-19 restrictions Infrastructure Minister, Nichola Mallon has approved adjustments to public transport services in response to new Covid-19 restrictions.

Follow the three wise moves this Christmas

Health Minister Robin Swann has urged everyone across Northern Ireland to keep taking the simple steps that prevent the spread of Covid-19.

Ministers urge vigilance as variant strain of Covid-19 takes hold in England

An aggressive new strain of Covid-19 reinforces the need for everyone to be vigilant and follow the public health advice, Ministers have said.