

Minister announces Neueda to expand in Belfast with 230 new jobs

Economy Minister Diane Dodds has today announced that Belfast based digital solutions company, Neueda, will create 230 jobs in a £20million investment.

Quarantine regulations updated

Anyone arriving into Northern Ireland from Andorra, Belgium and the Bahamas will be required from this Saturday to quarantine for 14 days.

Executive outlines decisions on Coronavirus response

The Executive has today taken a number of decisions as part of its ongoing response to the Coronavirus pandemic.

Executive statement on face coverings

The Executive has today announced that the use of face coverings in certain indoor settings will be mandatory from Monday August 10.

Minister comments on Covid-19 statistics

The latest total for new Covid-19 cases provides a “wake-up call for the complacent”, Health Minister Robin Swann has warned.