

Resurfacing scheme for Cregagh Road, Belfast

A £320,000 resurfacing scheme on Cregagh Road, Belfast is due to commence on Monday 31 August 2020.

Mallon praises community partnership in face of Storm Francis and urges caution as warnings remain in place

The Minister for Infrastructure, Nichola Mallon has praised the multi-agency and community response to Storm Francis and called for communities to be on their guard as weather warnings remain in place.

Agencies on the ground responding to Storm Francis

Multi-agency partners are currently on the ground working in partnership responding to the impacts of Storm Francis.

Minister launches Experience Development Programme for tourism providers

Economy Minister Diane Dodds has launched Tourism NI's new programme to provide financial assistance to help support tourism providers in creating experiences that reflect the new Northern Ireland Embrace A Giant Spirit experience brand and stimulate demand for local tourism.

Further education colleges deliver for NI learners and economy – Dodds

Northern Ireland's further education colleges deliver high quality learning that meets the needs of learners and the economy, Minister Diane Dodds said today.