

Justice Minister praises police search operation

A police operation in Derry/Londonderry has undoubtedly saved lives, Justice Minister Naomi Long has said.

Trading Standards warns public to 'wash your hands of coronavirus scams'

The Department for the Economy's Trading Standards Service (TSS) is warning people to remain vigilant following a rise in reports of coronavirus-related scams.

Education Minister publishes guidance for schools on supporting remote learning

Education Minister, Peter Weir, has today published guidance for schools on supporting remote learning during the Covid-19 outbreak.

Infrastructure Minister actively considering move to mandatory face coverings on public transport Infrastructure Minister Nichola Mallon has confirmed she is working to consider the mandatory use of face coverings when using public transport.

New advice for travellers coming to Northern Ireland

The Department of Health has issued advice for travellers coming to Northern Ireland from next week.