

Keep up the fight against Covid-19

Health Minister Robin Swann has urged to public to stick firmly to social distancing and keep fighting back against Covid-19.

Minister Swann welcomes additional funding to tackle Coronavirus infections

Health Minister Robin Swann welcomes the additional funding announced this evening by Health Secretary Matt Hancock.

Minister praises voluntary and community efforts in Strabane

Communities Minister Deirdre Hargey MLA today praised local volunteers during a visit to Strabane Community Project, one of the organisations leading on the community response to the Covid-19 pandemic.

Covid-19 childcare sector support scheme open

Following the joint announcement by Education Minister Peter Weir and Health Minister Robin Swann of a £12m package of measures to support the childcare sector, the scheme is now open to eligible childcare providers.

Modelling data shows social distancing works

The impact of social distancing measures on the spread of Covid-19 has been highlighted in data made public by the Department of Health.