

Magilligan prisoners' on the run – for NHS!

More than 40 prisoners have gone on the run in Magilligan prison – as part of a marathon effort to raise funds for the NHS!

Minister Hargey to protect housing supply

Communities Minister Deirdre Hargey is to introduce legislation that will help protect the supply of new and existing social and affordable homes.

Justice Ministers: Stay local and save lives

Justice Minister Naomi Long and her Irish counterpart, Minister for Justice and Equality, Charlie Flanagan TD have today stressed the need to avoid complacency in the fight to slow the spread of COVID-19.

Minister publishes information on impact of COVID-19 on Universal Credit Claims

Communities Minister Deirdre Hargey today published a range of Management Information highlighting the impact the Covid-19 crisis has had on the number of claims to Universal Credit.

Dodds announces two skills initiatives in response to the pandemic

Economy Minister Diane Dodds today announced a free skills programme for small businesses and a free post-graduate certificate in software development for people whose career has been impacted by Covid-19.