

Dodds announces remote learning Assured Skills Academy

Economy Minister Diane Dodds today announced a new FinTrU Assured Skills Academy delivering high quality training fully remotely.

Communities Minister announces support for Artists, Performers and Creative Producers across the arts and creative sector.

Communities Minister Deirdre Hargey MLA has instructed officials to put in place immediate and practical steps to help support Artists, Performers and Creative Producers across the arts and cultural sector.

'Stay at home this weekend' – Minister Swann

Health Minister Robin Swann is urging everyone across Northern Ireland to stay at home this weekend – despite the good weather.

Minister thanks social security staff for their hard work and commitment during COVID-19 crisis

Communities Minister Deirdre Hargey MLA has thanked social security staff for the role they continue to play in ensuring essential services are provided for those most in need during these challenging times.

Dedicated Northern Ireland Covid-19 app launched

The Department of Health Northern Ireland has launched a new Covid-19 NI information app.