Be responsible with waste

Environment Minister Edwin Poots has urged people once again not to fly-tip and to think twice about clearing out their house and gardens during COVID-19.

---

Northern Ireland's first real-time air quality app launched

A new air quality app providing real-time data that can help protect people's health has been launched by the Environment Minister Edwin Poots.

---

Time is right to start rebuilding the tourism industry, says Dodds

Northern Ireland's tourism and hospitality sectors have a vital role to play in our economic recovery following the COVID-19 crisis.

---

Minister publishes information on impact of COVID-19 on Universal Credit Claims

Communities Minister Deirdre Hargey today published a range of Management Information highlighting the impact the Covid-19 crisis has had on the number of claims to Universal Credit.

---

Dodds announces two skills initiatives in response to the pandemic

Economy Minister Diane Dodds today announced a free skills programme for small businesses and a free post-graduate certificate in software development for people whose career has been impacted by Covid-19.