

We must capitalise on our strengths to build our economy: Dodds

Northern Ireland must capitalise on its strengths in emerging industries in order to deliver an expanding economy and it must invest in innovation to stay ahead.

Justice Minister reinforces 'no place for hate' message

That was the message from Justice Minister Naomi Long when she opened an Online Hate Crime Event at Belfast City Hall.

Board Member Appointed to the Police Rehabilitation and Retraining Trust

The Department of Justice has appointed Chief Superintendent Ryan Henderson as a Board Member of the Police Rehabilitation and Retraining Trust (PRRT).

New coronavirus advice service provision

Northern Ireland now has full access to the NHS 111 helpline service on coronavirus.

Hargey announces Neighbourhood Renewal funding protected until 2022

Minister for Communities Deirdre Hargey MLA has today written to the chairs of Neighbourhood Renewal Partnerships and Area at Risk representatives to outline that she is committed to protecting the budget for those programmes until 2022.