

Extension of appointment to the Board of the Northern Ireland Housing Executive

The term of appointment of a Member of the Board of the Northern Ireland Housing Executive (NIHE) has been extended from 1 February 2020 to 30 June 2020 or until permanent Board Member appointments are made, whichever is earliest.

Minister Swann welcomes trade union decision

Health Minister Robin Swann has welcomed the announcement by trade unions that they have accepted his proposals on pay parity and safe staffing.

Mallon announces the start of £183,000 resurfacing scheme on Castleblaney Road, Keady Infrastructure Minister Nichola Mallon has announced that a £183,000 carriageway resurfacing scheme on the Castleblaney Road, Keady will begin on Monday 2 March 2020.

Mallon announces the start of £300,000 resurfacing schemes on Victoria Drive and Victoria Road, Bangor

Infrastructure Minister Nichola Mallon has announced that two carriageway resurfacing schemes in Bangor will commence on Monday 24 February 2020. Victoria Drive and Victoria Road will both benefit from a £300,000 investment.

Agencies working together to tackle impacts of rainfall

Due to the significant amount of rainfall that has fallen in recent weeks, water levels are generally higher than normal in lakes and watercourses. Rainfall in February, so far, has been approximately 160% of the monthly average in some western areas.