Further Update: New traffic signals scheme on the A2 Belfast to Bangor Road

The £200,000 scheme underway to install traffic signals on the A2 Belfast to Bangor Road at Ballymoney Road, Bangor, has entered its final phase.

Latest update on coronavirus (Covid-19)

As of 2pm on Wednesday 11 March testing has resulted in two new presumed positive cases bringing the total number of cases in Northern Ireland to 18.

Growing Colin Allotments and Healthy Living Centre

An upgrade to the Colin Allotments and Healthy Living Centre in West Belfast has been officially unveiled by Junior Minister Declan Kearney.

Minister welcomes suspension of NIPSA industrial action

Responding to the news that NIPSA is immediately suspending its industrial action in the Health and Social Care service, Minister of Health Robin Swann said:

Budget falls short of what's needed — Murphy

As a result of the Chancellor's Budget announcement today the Executive will receive £77million of Resource funding and £138million of capital.