

Mallon announces the start of £215,000 resurfacing scheme on Shean Road, Forkhill

Infrastructure Minister Nichola Mallon has announced that a £215,000 carriageway resurfacing scheme on the Shean Road, Forkhill is set to begin on Monday 27 January 2020.

Using technology and innovation to protect the environment and support farm efficiency

Making use of innovation and technology in the agriculture sector will be key to improving our environment and making farming more profitable and sustainable.

Health Minister welcomes Unison and RCN's decision

Health Minister Robin Swann has warmly welcomed announcements by health unions, Unison and RCN suspending industrial action.

Northern Ireland Police Fund Chairperson and Board members recruitment competition launched

The Department of Justice has launched a recruitment competition to appoint a

Chairperson and four Board members to the Northern Ireland Police Fund (NIPF).

Launch of Competition for new Local Government Boundaries Commissioner for Northern Ireland

The Department for Communities has today launched a competition to appoint a new Commissioner to review Local Government Boundaries.