

FinTrU Assured Skills Academy offers 20 more high quality training places for graduates in Belfast

Local financial services company FinTrU, in conjunction with the Department for the Economy, is offering 20 more high quality training places to graduates in its latest Assured Skills Academy in Belfast.

Department of Health sets out plans on Cystic Fibrosis drugs

The Department of Health has confirmed its intention to make Cystic Fibrosis drugs Orkambi, Symkevi and Kalydeco available to eligible patients in Northern Ireland.

US-NI strengthen cyber security commitment in Baltimore

The Department for the Economy and the State of Maryland Departments of Commerce and Labor have formalised their commitment to the growth of the cyber security sector through the signing of a Memorandum of Understanding in Baltimore.

Public consultation on Review of Sentencing Policy launched

The Department of Justice has today launched a public consultation following a major review of sentencing policy.

Consultation opens on draft Social and Environmental Guidance for Water and Sewerage services

A consultation on draft Social and Environmental Guidance for Water and Sewerage Services (2021-27) opens today.