

Adult and Youth Reoffending in Northern Ireland (Cohort 2016/17)

The Department of Justice (DoJ) today published Research and Statistics Bulletin, 'Adult and Youth Reoffending In Northern Ireland (2016/17 Cohort)'

Chief Medical Officer announces further commitment to tackle obesity

Dr Michael McBride, Chief Medical Officer has reiterated his commitment to tackling the prevalence of overweight and obesity in Northern Ireland.

Northern Ireland students recognised in global awards programme

Thirteen undergraduate students from Northern Ireland have been recognised in the 2019 Undergraduate Awards Programme.

DoH statement on planned industrial action

The Department remains focussed on finding a way forward – in this context we are currently finalising a formal pay offer for 2019/20.

Boxing champions knock-out support for Hydebank students

Boxing champions Paddy Barnes, Marc McCullough and Carly McNaul launched a new boxing work-out programme at Hydebank Wood College to help students' improve their fitness and mental health.