

Ballyclare businessman convicted for illegal advertising and possession of medicines

A 51-year-old Ballyclare businessman charged with breaches of Human Medicines Regulations has been fined over £4000 at Belfast Magistrates Court. Nick Watkins, (51), from Forthaven in Ballyclare and the owner of MAC Aesthetics in Glengormley unlawfully offered anti-wrinkle and weight loss treatments.

Invest NI Review Action Plan published

The Department for the Economy has published its Action Plan in response to the Independent Review of Invest Northern Ireland.

Safe Access Zones now established in Northern Ireland

Safe Access Zones have been introduced at eight health service locations across Northern Ireland.

New Lower Shankill park officially opened

A new park on the Lower Shankill, adjacent to the Westlink in Belfast, was officially opened today (September 29).

20 high quality training places available on Business Operations Assured Skills Academy with EOS IT Solutions

The Department for the Economy has announced 20 high quality training places on an Assured Skills Academy delivered by Southern Regional College for Co Down company EOS IT Solutions.