

First Minister Nicola Sturgeon's UNICEF speech in China

Below is the speech given by First Minister Nicola Sturgeon in Beijing at a joint Scottish Government/UNICEF event hosted by the Chinese Peoples Association for Friendship of Foreign Countries.

Go to Source

Author:

Gender wage gap figures make for shocking reading as women must wait two more centuries for equality

All companies, charities and public sector bodies with more than 250 employees were required to publish the difference in the hourly rate paid to men and women last week. Some of publications have made for shocking reading.

Go to Source

Author:

Meet the SNP MPs and MSPs that worked in our health service

Our National Health Service is our most cherished institution. We owe a huge debt of gratitude to the hardworking men and women who deliver world-class health care day in and day out.

Go to Source

Author:

11 by-elections, thousands of doors knocked and friends for life: Margaret Ferrier on campaigning over the past year

Margaret Ferrier has campaigned in 12 different local by-elections in nine short months. Prior to that she was the MP for Rutherglen and Hamilton West and previously worked as a commercial sales supervisor for a manufacturing construction company.

Margaret spoke to us about her busy year campaigning.

Go to Source

Author:

5 Tory policies that Ruth Davidson knows are hurting Scotland but still supports

At the general election last year, Ruth Davidson told the people of Scotland that her new band of 13 Tory MPs would “forcefully” argue for Scotland’s interests in Westminster – but nothing could be further from the truth.

Go to Source

Author: