

Leading the future: our vision for Scotland's economy

We live in a time of economic transformation – presenting challenges as well as opportunities.

Go to Source

Author:

Good news on Scotland's economy you might have missed

Scotland is one of the strongest economies in the world. Against a backdrop of Tory austerity – and faced with a damaging Brexit – we are taking action to make it stronger still.

Go to Source

Author:

How we're investing in rural infrastructure fit for the future

Our vision is of a Scotland where all of our communities – urban, rural, remote or island – grow together and that we all share in the prosperity that generates.

Go to Source

Author:

As schools go back, education reform work continues

As schools go back this week, education is once again a hot topic of conversation.

Go to Source

Author:

Theresa May must stamp out Tory racism and bigotry

Boris Johnson is no stranger to controversy. But last week, his remarks about Muslim women and their clothing were the height of bigotry and utterly - inexcusable. Comparing Muslim women who wear the veil to “letter boxes” and “bank robbers” isn’t “colourful rhetoric”, it’s blatantly Islamophobic and offensive.

Go to Source

Author: