

Hammond bullish on economy but failed to provide actual analysis of problems, says UKIP

Chancellor Phillip Hammond was very bullish about the economy, but Professor Bush says that Mr Hammond's statement was big on boasts but very short on actual analysis of our problems.

Go to Source

Author:

Mike Hookem MEP accuses Lib-Dem leader of "a politically motivated attempt to whip up more hatred"

UKIP deputy leader defends Brexiteers against Vince Cable's insinuations of racism and living in the past for voting for UK independence.

Go to Source

Author:

UKIP puts pressure on Government over rape gangs

Following the revelations of 40 years of child abuse carried out by rape gangs in Telford, and on the back tens of thousands of innocent child victims, almost entirely white or Sikh, in cities across the length and breadth of these islands, the leader of UKIP in the House of Lords will present an oral question to the Government on Tuesday 13th March about the failures of the authorities to deal with the situation and whether anything will be done to hold the failing agencies to account for those failings.

Go to Source

Author:

UKIP calls for a Commonwealth Free Trade Area to celebrate Commonwealth Day

Gerard Batten MEP, the UKIP leader has taken the opportunity of Commonwealth day to call for a Commonwealth Free Trade Area.

Go to Source

Author:

Another town another grooming scandal – when will we act to stamp out the horror?

Today it is Telford, where revelations have revealed that hundreds of young girls have been targetted by the inaccurately named “Asian grooming gangs”. In the past it has been Rotherham, Slough, Oxford, Newcastle, where will it be next?

Go to Source

Author: