

Claiming that London will lose 900 jobs after the EMA relocates to Amsterdam is disingenuous

The European Medicines Agency (EMA) will relocate from London to Amsterdam following the UK's decision to leave the EU. The new location was decided upon by European Commission and now the Agency has just over 16 months to prepare for the move and take up its operations in Amsterdam by 30 March 2019 at the latest.

Go to Source

Author:

Hammond will learn: 'Money can't be by you love'

Reports that the Chancellor, Phillip Hammond, in budget week, is considering doubling his previous proposed Brexit bill to £40 billion is an outrage.

Go to Source

Author:

"Why Are We Waiting?" 12 Day and Waiting for a Government Response to CFP Petition

UKIP fisheries spokesman, Mike Hookem MEP has questioned why it is taking so long for Government to respond to petition to remove the CFP from the 'Great Repeal Bill' saying; "It would seem the Government don't have a response for hard-working fishermen who deserve answers on their future."

Go to Source

Author:

Hammond's gaffe insults struggling families

Philip Hammond should “try telling young people and the unemployed in my constituency that there are no unemployed people”, UKIP's Treasury Spokesman has suggested.

Go to Source

Author:

Our courts and judiciary are the best in the world, we do not need the ECJ to reign over us

David Davis announcement yesterday that Britain could remain under the European Court of Justice goes to demonstrate just how weak the government have become and that they are being towed by the nose.

Go to Source

Author: