

Wages up: Jobs up. More good news for Brexit Britain

Andrew Charalambous, the Party's Employment Spokesman responding to the recent report of the Recruitment and Employment Confederation, said that "UKIP are clearly the only Party that still believes in Britain. We will never talk Britain down. This report contains much promising news for British workers. Brexit is improving the wages across the board for the working people of the country"

Go to Source

Author:

"Britannia used to rule the waves – but cuts make it a laughing stock"

UKIP fisheries spokesman, Mike Hookem MEP, has slammed the Government for "allowing" illegal fishing by Spanish trawlers off Gibraltar, saying, "the lack of UK investment into the Royal Navy and fisheries policing and protection is encouraging a situation where the Spanish can rob us blind."

Go to Source

Author:

MIKE HOOKEM MEP: "A single judge deciding guilt or innocence is not justice!"

Former Life Guard's soldier, charged with attempted murder in Northern Ireland 43 years ago, appeals to High Court for jury trial.

Go to Source

Author:

WE MUST STOP THE BETRAYAL OF BREXIT

Yorkshire and North Lincolnshire MEP, Mike Hookem, has launched a petition to force the Government to remove fisheries from Theresa May's 'Great Repeal Bill', saying, "the inclusion of the Common Fisheries Policy into UK law is an abject betrayal of Brexit."

<https://petition.parliament.uk/petitions/204098>

Go to Source

Author:

Withdrawal from ECHR critical to protect our physical and financial security says UKIP

Court cases lodged by ISIS, or families of terrorists, risk spiralling into international legal warfare, unless the UK immediately withdraws from the European Court of Human Rights.

In the past week, British taxpayers are being stung for potentially millions of pounds, in lawsuits filed one of soldier Lee Rigby's murderers, as well as the parents of British-born ISIS terrorist named "Jack". Jack, who converted to Islam and travelled to the ISIS stronghold of Raqqa in Syria, is thought to have been captured by Kurdish militia during 2017.

Go to Source

Author: