'Amber' Rudd 'Green Lights' Uncontrolled Immigration

Today Amber Rudd confirmed what UKIP have been saying since the EU referendum a year last June, which is that the Tory government have no intention of honouring their 'tens of thousands' net immigration pledge.

With net immigration running at 250,000 a year (significantly higher under the Tories than Labour) the Home Office, since 2010 run by Theresa May and now Amber Rudd is kowtowing to big business, to keep the borders open after we leave the EU and allow in high levels of low skilled workers to keep down wages and deprive British workers of job opportunities and higher wages.
