

UKEF backs major Taiwan offshore wind project, creating over £130 million in UK exports

The UK government's export credit agency announces that it has issued its largest ever project financing guarantee for renewables, securing UK export contracts worth over £130 million.