

UKEF joins new international alliance to help export finance reach net zero

The UK's export credit agency (ECA) has become a founding member of a partnership convened by the UN to help export finance reach net zero emissions by 2050.