

UKHSA encourages timely vaccination as whooping cough cases rise

New data published today by the UK Health Security Agency (UKHSA) shows cases of whooping cough continue to increase with 2,591 cases confirmed in May.