

UKHSA urges more people to protect themselves against flu

By the end of October 2024, almost 2 million school children had a nasal spray vaccine. November has seen further vaccinations. But many are still missing out