

UK's world-class film sector handed major jobs and growth boost by tax reliefs

Film and the creative industries to form key part of government's mission to grow the economy in all parts of the UK