UN chief Guterres condemns deadly terrorist attack in Barcelona

17 August 2017 — Condemning today's terrorist attack on Barcelona, Spain, Secretary-General António Guterres said the United Nations stands in solidarity with the Government and people of Spain in the fight against terrorism and violent extremism.

&#8220He extends his heartfelt condolences to the families and friends of those killed and to the Government and people of Spain,&#8221 according to a statement issued by UN Deputy Spokesman Farhan Hag.

The statement added that Mr. Guterres wishes a speedy recovery to those injured and hopes that those responsible for this heinous violence will be swiftly brought to justice.

According to media reports, a van ran into a crowd of pedestrians walking through Barcelona's famed Las Ramblas area, killing at least 13 people and wounding dozens of others.