

Une enquête révèle que les consommateurs de l'UE effectuent de plus en plus souvent des achats en ligne transfrontières

25/07/2017 – Business, taxation and competition / Consumer affairs and public health / Economy and the euro

The 2017 edition of the Consumer Conditions Scoreboard shows that more and more EU consumers are shopping online and that their trust in e-commerce has increased, in particular in buying online from other EU countries.