

United Nations Sanctions (Central African Republic) Regulation 2020 (Amendment) Regulation 2023 gazetted

The Government today (December 15) gazetted the United Nations Sanctions (Central African Republic) Regulation 2020 (Amendment) Regulation 2023 (the Amendment Regulation), which came into operation today.

"The Amendment Regulation amends the United Nations Sanctions (Central African Republic) Regulation 2020 to give effect to certain decisions relating to sanctions in the United Nations Security Council Resolutions 2664 and 2693 in respect of the Central African Republic," a Government spokesman said.

The amendments renew the financial sanctions, travel ban and arms-related sanctions, and reflect the latest exemption arrangements in respect of an asset freeze and arms-related sanctions.
