

United Nations Sanctions (Haiti) (Amendment) Regulation 2024 gazetted

The Government today (February 23) gazetted the United Nations Sanctions (Haiti) (Amendment) Regulation 2024, which came into operation today.

"The Amendment Regulation amends the United Nations Sanctions (Haiti) Regulation to give effect to certain decisions relating to sanctions in the United Nations Security Council Resolution 2700 in respect of Haiti," a Government spokesman said.

The amendments renew the travel ban, financial sanctions and arms embargo, revise the scope of arms embargo, and reflect the new exemption requirements relating to arms embargo.
