

Unleashing our full potential

As television audiences watch competition continue to heat up on The Apprentice, a new campaign has been launched to inspire staff and students at Scotland's Rural College through entrepreneurship.