

Updates on postal services to certain destinations

Hongkong Post today (November 20) announced that postal services to the destinations listed below will resume from tomorrow (November 21) as airlines have gradually scaled up their air traffic capacity and some postal administrations abroad have resumed acceptance of transit mail. Notwithstanding this, postal operations are still under the influence of the pandemic and mail delivery services may be subject to delay. The list of service types that will be available for destinations concerned is set out as follows:
