

Violent robbers ordered to serve longer in prison

Three men with a history of violence who robbed a man in a Bristol takeaway have their prison sentences increased after the Solicitor General intervened.