

Virtual farewell for Honduran Chevening scholars

World news story

The British Ambassador hosted a virtual farewell for three Honduran scholars going to the UK.

The British Ambassador to Honduras, Nick Whittingham, sent off successful Chevening Scholarship recipients at a virtual meeting hosted with the awardees and members of the Chevening community in the country.

Every year, a group of outstanding Honduran scholars are selected to study different fields at UK universities under the prestigious Chevening Scholarship, funded by the British Government.

The three 2022-2023 scholars are:

- Adriana Palacios, MSc in Sustainable Resources: Economics, Policy and Transitions at University College London
- Damaris Dueñas, MSc in Tropical Marine Biology at University of Essex
- Ileana Lainez, LLM in Information Technology and Intellectual Property Law at University of Sussex

Chevening is the UK Government's global scholarship programme that offers future leaders the unique opportunity to study in the UK. These scholarships are awarded to outstanding professionals from all over the world to pursue a one-year master's degree in any subject at any UK university.

The application window for the 2023/2024 Chevening Scholarship is open and closes on 01 November 2022. Find more information here: Chevening Honduras.
