

Volume and price statistics of external merchandise trade in November 2024

Further to the external merchandise trade statistics in value terms for November 2024 released earlier on, the Census and Statistics Department (C&SD) released today (January 16) the volume and price statistics of external merchandise trade for that month.

In November 2024, the volume of Hong Kong's total exports of goods decreased by 0.6%, while the volume of imports of goods increased by 3.1% over November 2023.

Comparing the first eleven months of 2024 with the same period in 2023, the volume of Hong Kong's total exports of goods and imports of goods increased by 5.1% and 3.3% respectively.

Comparing the three-month period ending November 2024 with the preceding three months on a seasonally adjusted basis, the volume of total exports of goods and imports of goods decreased by 4.6% and 1.6% respectively.

Changes in volume of external merchandise trade are derived from changes in external merchandise trade value with the effect of price changes discounted.

Comparing November 2024 with November 2023, the prices of total exports of goods and imports of goods increased by 2.7% and 2.5% respectively.

As regards price changes in the first eleven months of 2024 over the same period in 2023, the prices of total exports of goods and imports of goods increased by 3.7% and 3.3% respectively.

Price changes in external merchandise trade are reflected by changes in unit value indices of external merchandise trade, which are compiled based on average unit values or, for certain commodities, specific price data.

The terms of trade index is derived from the ratio of price index of total exports of goods to that of imports of goods. Compared with the same periods in 2023, the index increased by 0.2% in November 2024 and 0.4% in the first eleven months of 2024.

Changes in the unit value and volume of total exports of goods by main destination are shown in Table 1.

Comparing November 2024 with November 2023, declines were recorded for the total export volume to India (-27.8%), the USA (-5.8%) and Taiwan (-2.6%). On the other hand, the total export volume to the mainland of China

(the Mainland) (1.0%) and Vietnam (38.5%) increased.

Over the same period of comparison, the total export prices to the USA (4.3%), Taiwan (4.3%), the Mainland (3.0%) and Vietnam (2.6%) increased. On the other hand, the total export prices to India decreased by 3.6%.

Changes in the unit value and volume of imports of goods by main supplier are shown in Table 2.

Comparing November 2024 with November 2023, increases were recorded for the import volume from Taiwan (31.9%), Singapore (26.3%), Korea (7.2%) and Japan (2.7%). On the other hand, the import volume from the Mainland decreased by 0.8%.

Over the same period of comparison, the import prices from all main suppliers increased: Korea (7.7%), Singapore (4.1%), Taiwan (3.4%), Japan (1.8%) and the Mainland (1.3%).
