

Vulnerable people encouraged to seek help with energy bills

Families struggling with energy bills are being urged to speak to their council for Household Support Fund help.