

Warship and submarine readiness boost by small British businesses

Small British businesses are to benefit from a new warship and submarine agreement, Defence Minister Maria Eagle has announced today.