

Watchdog to tackle rip off fuel prices

The Competition and Markets Authority to be granted new powers to help improve competition in the road fuel market and protect consumers from unfair prices.