

Well done England

<https://johnredwoodsdiary.com/>

What an amazing game of cricket! It was a roller coaster ride for players and fans, with great drama down to the last ball of the final super over. England showed great resource and determination against a brilliant New Zealand team who were so close to victory themselves.

Congratulations to an England team who have provided so much good entertainment over the last four years making their way to become world champions.