

What are the changes to agricultural property relief?

Reforms announced at the Budget will help raise money to fix the public finances while protecting small family farms from unfairly high inheritance tax.