

WIN Programme completes first ever trade mission

The Women's International Networking Programme have completed their first trade mission this week, travelling to Indianapolis and Chicago.