

Winnersh bypass

The new bypass includes new prohibitions on turning right at the light controlled crossroads between King Street Lane and the new bypass. Please observe the signs, as accidents have resulted from people who disagree with the controls. Councillors say that it will help cut congestion to have the new bypass with these restrictions. The new bypass can be entered from the roundabout on the Reading Road for westbound and from the Early Way junction for eastbound.