

Winnersh Post Office

I have been told by the Post Office that the Winnersh office "is temporarily closed for operational reasons"

They have not given me any more details or any indication of when they will be able to resume their service. I have urged them to restore it as soon as possible.