

Wokingham Choral carols

I greatly enjoyed the Wokingham Choral Society's carols on Saturday 17th.

They sung well, and encouraged audience participation in some of the well known ones.

I would like to thank all who organised it, and to wish them a very happy Christmas with their families and friends.